

HB 2001/SB 1013 Education Appropriations 2009-2010 3rd Special Session 2009

Signed by Gov. Brewer 7/8/09

Summary of Legislation: In July of 2009, Governor Brewer vetoed the large cuts to the public education portion of the budget from HB1188 (first regular session). While her veto explicitly rejected these cuts, it also left the school districts with no budget numbers to work with for 2009-2010 school year. This bill--HB2001/SB1013--was intended to provide temporary budget numbers, pending the legislature's 4th special session, which was convened to complete the budget in November. * NOTE: This bill was not included in the final voting statistics table. The bill is neutral on its face. Its only purpose was to give school districts numbers to plan tentative budgets, pending final resolution by the legislature.

Vote Translation:

"YES" on bill = provides public schools with temporary budget numbers.

"NO" on bill = would have left school districts with no budget guidance at the beginning of the school year. Please note that not one legislator voted "NO" on this bill.
